

Squads

Satellites operates a squad system, where swimmers progress through the squads upon meeting the appropriate requirements. Squad movement is ultimately decided via the requirements and an element of coach decision.

Our current squad information can be found on the training page. To find out which squad you are currently in please go to the member's area. There are also training sessions results in the member's area.

If there are any queries regarding squads please talk to a coach.